FIREMEN ARE HOSTS TO 2,000 AT "GUEST NIGHT"

Visitors from All Lake Co. Departments Are Entertained Here

Parking space was at a premium along streets leading to Antioch's main stem Monday evening, when Antioch firemen were hosts to other fire departments of Lake county and their ladies at their annual June party, which was climaxed with a public street dance.

Because of the many persons who were coming and going, it was difficult to make an accurate count of the number attending, but firemen estimated that between 1,500 and 2,000 visitors were present. The invitations issued included fire departments in Kenosha county and additional Illinois departments besides those in Lake county.

Frank Dougherty, of the state fire marshal's office, and Lieut. Clarence Y. Schar, of the firemen's pension board of trustees of the Chicago department, were the speakers at a program in St. Ignace's hall at 8 p. m. Mr. Dougherty paid tribute to the work of all Lake county departments in combating arson. Firemen's pension legislation was Lieut. Schar's topic.

300 at Supper

A supper for 300 firemen and visitors was served in the Chevrolet garage at 5 o'clock.

The Antioch Sons of the American Legion drum and bugle corps afterward put on a parade demonstration on Main street which was abbreviated somewhat because of a sudden downpour of rain, but drew many complimentary remarks from the visitors.

Dancing began at 9 o'clock on Main street, a portion of which was roped off and covered with canvas. Music was furnished by means of an electrical loudspeaker system.

Assisting Chief James Stearns on the committees for "Guest Night," which is observed annually, were Firemen John L. Moran, Herman Rosling, Clarence Shultz, Walter I. Scott and John Gaa, and James McMillen.

ANNOUNCE LEGION FESTIVAL DATES JULY 21-22-23

The annual festival sponsored by the Antioch American Legion Post will be held on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 21, 22 and 23, according to announcement made this week by Clarence White, adjutant of the local post.

In former years the festival has been held around the Fourth of July holiday, but this year the Legionnaires were unable to secure the high class amusement features they desired at the earlier date and the festival was set ahead until the third week in July. This year's features will eclipse all former festivals, according to the Legion men in charge of the affair.

Find Car Full of Rugs; Hold 3 Men

Their curiosity aroused by a large quantity of rugs in the back seat, Fox Lake officers turned over to sheriff's deputies Friday afternoon three occupants of a car bearing Canadian license plates. The trio, who gave the names of Hnb and Joe Gorman, Jackson, Miss., and Mike Gorman, Memphis, Tenn., were between the ages of 23 and 26.

They had been halted on a charge of driving while intoxicated, in response to a call from Antioch, which they had left a short time before.

London to Encounter Ruffy Silverstein Friday

"Whiskers" Mike London, bearded wrestler and ex-sheep herder who aroused the ire of patrons at Peg's Grayslake arena last week when he roughly battered Winnet Wallingford into submission, will be called on to match tactics with a formidable opponent Friday when he is pitted against Ruffy Silverstein in an all-star card.

Frank Talaber vs. Jerry Meeker, Hans Schnable vs. Roy Rickenbacker, and Fritz Schnable vs. Phil Malloy are the other matches.

The first bout will start at 8:30 p. m.

Car, Truck Collide at North Ave. Intersection

A truck driven by August Lubkeman, Antioch, and an automobile of Rich Charles R. Wagon, Salem, was the driver, figured in a collision at the intersection of North avenue and North Main street Friday evening at 6:35 o'clock. Wagon was passing a car that slowed to turn into north avenue, from which Lubkeman's vehicle had just emerged, when the collision occurred.

Around the Resorts

Croquet addicts have found out that both Dick Moran's Fairway Grill and Joe Fox' Pasadena Gardens on Highway 83 have excellent croquet courts. Teams at both taverns challenge all comers.

Orchestra music and special entertainment vic with a fine collection of stuffed game and fish for the attention of visitors to Anton Rys' Maple Inn, Highway 83.

A cool, airy and attractive basement bar, with adjoining porch and dining room, built into the hillside on the lower floor of Barney and Vida Shunneson's resort at Grass lake provides complete comfort for the "dripper-inner" or week-end guest.

Louis Armstrong, "The Granddaddy of them all when it comes to swing," is expected to draw a goodly flock of jitter-bugs, dancers and just plain listeners to the Fox pavilion, McHenry, on July 8.

Dancing in the patio as well as fine food served in the dining room helps make the Brass Ball tavern at Highway 83 and 50 a magnet for recreation seekers from near and far away. Ollie O'Mara is the proprietor of the tavern, which was completely remodeled at considerable cost a year or two ago.

Ray Paulson and his six-piece orchestra are continuing to win the approval of dine-and-dancers at Johnny Koukol's new tavern at Lake Marie, on Route 173, one mile west of Antioch.

and for those who like the outdoors and exercise, there are the excellent riding horses available at Newman's Farms, a short distance east of the greenhouse, on North avenue, at Antioch.

Real Italian spaghetti and ravioli, prepared as they should be prepared, are among the dishes served with pride by Dominick Giannini at his State Line Inn on Highway 83.

Enthusiasm over an 11-pound northern pike he caught at Bob Hardman's resort on Eluff lake last Tuesday, Albert Pierson of 4311 North Whipple street, Chicago, brought his wife and their daughter, June, along to try their hands at fishing, too, on a return visit he made Tuesday of this week.

The fine food that has roused many visitors to Antioch restaurants and lunch rooms to enthusiasm, and has led them to bring friends along to enjoy it on return visits, will be augmented by "specials" at many of the establishments this week-end and over the Fourth of July.

Patrons will be given a chance to enjoy the cuisine of Gus Mantis' capable chef at the Antioch cafe; the always homelike atmosphere and appetizing food of Bill Gerber's "Pantry"; and the justly praised German rookery and roast chicken served at the lunchroom in conjunction with Konig's bakery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Atkinson, who have just taken over the management of Howard's White Oak, bring to the place the "fine touches" and expert service resulting from several years experience in serving the exacting clientele of a college town—Champaign, Ill.

Those who used to enjoy Mr. and Mrs. Mike Golden's good home cooking at the former Antioch hotel, which was razed this spring, have been delighted to learn that they are serving meals at their home on Victoria street.

The Manor House, where chicken dinners are a specialty, is another favorite eating spot in Antioch.

For those who wish to cool off with an ice cream soda, a sundae, or some other chilly dish or drink on a scorching hot day, Reeves' drug store is among the establishments offering refreshments.

Home made ice cream, and rich malted milks, as well as cones and sundaes, are specialized in by the Snow White ice cream parlor.

The best week-end yet this year was enjoyed by resort owners Saturday and Sunday, according to general reports throughout the lakes region. Many visitors came from Chicago and

SONS OF LEGION WILL COMPETE IN STATE CONTEST

Drum Corps to Take Part in Parade This Sunday in Waukegan

Now making plans to compete in Illinois' first state contest for Sons of the American Legion drum and bugle corps is the 40-piece Antioch organization. The contest is to be held in Waukegan Sunday.

A "tag day" to supplement funds used for the expenses of the corps will be held here on Saturday.

The players gave a demonstration Monday evening for the annual "Guest Night" held by the Antioch fire department. They also took part in the "welcome parade" held Saturday at 6:30 p. m. in Waukegan as part of the Jack Benny celebration.

Leading the corps on parade are Bill Phillips, drum major and Carol Waters and Jeanette Whited, majorettes.

Parade at 1:30
The Legion contest Sunday in Waukegan will open with a parade at 1:30 p. m. daylight saving time. The line of march will be from the American Legion home, at Washington and West streets, west to Weiss Athletic field, a distance of a little over a mile.

The sixth corps judged to have rated the highest in the parade will compete in a 10-minute drill on the field. This contest will be held at 5 o'clock, daylight saving time.

A first prize of $75, a second prize of $50, a third of $25, and other prizes of $10 (for fourth and fifth places) and $5 are to be awarded. A call for persons with automobiles who will furnish transportation for corps members to Waukegan is being made by Otto Klass, adviser.

Girl Scout News

In spite of the rain last Thursday, the meeting was held outdoors on the banks of Sequoit creek, and the signal-lamp practice was done by Mabel Lou Hunter and Dorothy Aronson. The messages in flag code were received by Mrs. Ellis and Doris Burdick.

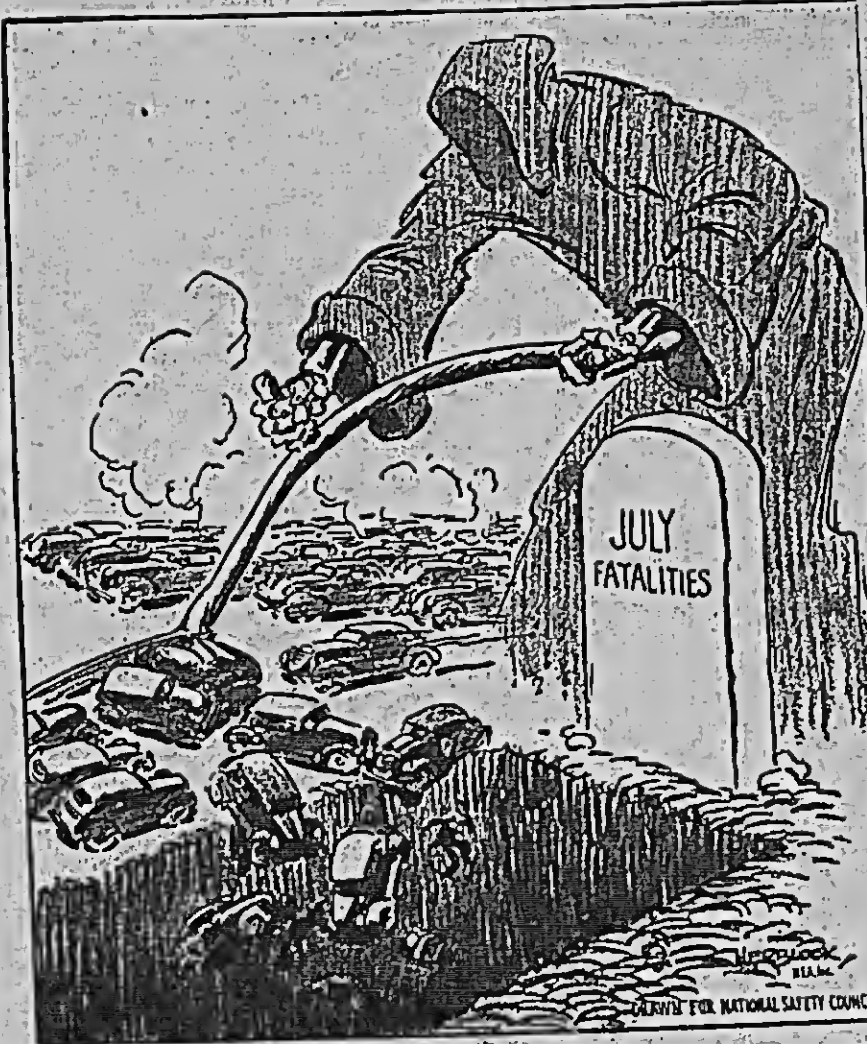

During the sunny part of the afternoon snapshots were taken. Pictures of the scouts in uniform will be taken for publication in the Girl Scout Magazine—"The American Girl."

Lila Dalgaard, Doris Strang, Theodora Hennings and Dorothy Aronson are spending this week at Rockford attending 4-11 camp. They expect to return this evening.

Post Office Hours

The Antioch post office will be open from 6:15 to 9:30 a. m. on July 4, but will be closed during the rest of the day, according to Postmaster John Moran.

Gardener Dies After Brief Illness

Taken suddenly ill Saturday at Lake Villa where he was employed, Albert Sellick, 48, gardener, died Sunday morning at Victory Memorial hospital, Waukegan. He had been employed as a gardener on the G. W. Reynolds estate for the past seven years.

The body was brought to Strang's funeral home here Sunday afternoon and Tuesday was removed to the Frank Stone home in Mundelein where it lay in state until the funeral service held at two o'clock Wednesday at St. Lawrence Episcopal church in Libertyville. Burial was in Lakeside cemetery.

Sellick was born in Bridgewater, England, in 1891, and came to this country several years ago. He is survived by his wife, Clara, his only relative in this country, and by several brothers and sisters in England.

He served with the Illinois Reserve militia during the world war.

"Quick-Frozen" Foods Are Boon to Housewife

One of science's newest aids to the busy housewife is a patented process of quick-freezing that assures consumers of obtaining the finest of foods, as fresh and full-flavored as they were the moment they were harvested or killed.

This process, used in the preparation of Birds Eye foods, for which R. E. Mann is the Antioch dealer, brings them fresh from the gardens, the fields or the sea, prepared as carefully as the most exacting housewife could prepare them in her own kitchen, and packed in sanitary cartons.

Birds Eye quick-freezing is done in a matter of minutes—so rapidly, in fact that the ice-crystals which form in the tiny cells of the foods are infinitesimal in size, and the texture and flavor of the food remain unchanged.

THREE DROWNED AT LAKES DURING PAST WEEK-END

Bennie Labno, 21; Oliver Buckley, 15, and George Rolf, 48, Victims

A verdict of accidental drowning was returned at a coroner's inquest held in Strang's funeral home here Sunday night on the death of Bennie Labno, 21, of 2637 West Potomac street, Chicago, Sunday in Cedar Lake, near Lake Villa.

Labno's body was discovered when a swimmer accidentally touched his ankle while diving about 600 feet off shore. The young man, who was one of a crowd of several hundred pleasure seekers at Sherwood grove, had not been missed by the members of his party.

Labno was born at Armstrong Creek, Wis., and was the son of Peter and Antonet Labno. The body was taken to Chicago Sunday night for burial.

Becomes Tired, Sinks
Oliver Buckley, 15, of 6725 May street, Chicago, was drowned at Towner lake, west of Wauconda, when he became tired and sank beneath the surface as he was attempting to swim to a raft in company with a brother, Edward, 20, and Paul Gross, 22, also of Chicago.

When Edward came to assist him, he pulled both of them under the water. Edward broke the hold and came to the surface for air. He and Gross then brought the younger lad to the surface, after repeated dives in search of him; but rescue equipment failed to revive him.

Drowned when he apparently fell from his boat, which was anchored in shallow water, George L. Rolf, 48, of Chicago, a printer, lost his life early Friday evening.

He was seen sitting in the boat at 7 p. m., and shortly afterward the boat was observed to be empty. John Eliasek, 51, of Ingleside, recovered the body. A two-hour attempt to restore Rolf to consciousness failed. A wife and daughter survive him.

These deaths raise to seven Lake county's toll of drowning for this year.

Lake County Farmers in State Floral Contest

Eighteen hundred Illinois farm owners and operators, including 11 in Lake county have entered the 1939 Governor Horner Farm Floral Contest, it was reported today by F. Lyn-den Smith, director of the department of public works and buildings.

The contest, to promote beauty in rural Illinois, is sponsored jointly by the State of Illinois, the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs and the Garden club of Illinois, according to Director Smith.

Cash prizes aggregating $2,500.00 and 104 bronze plaques will be awarded State and county winners.

Among the entrants from Lake county are Alfred J. Pedersen, Antioch, Route 173, seven-tenths mile east of U. S. 45; Mrs. Mary L. Smart, Antioch, Route 173, two-tenths mile west of Illinois Rt. 59; Mrs. Rose Annundsen, Fox Lake, three-fourths mile east of Fox Lake on Grand avenue; and Jennie L. Mendell, Wadsworth, Route 173, two and one-half miles east of Junction of U. S. 45.

NAME COMMITTEES FOR 17TH ANNUAL COUNTRY FAIR

Committees Expanded to Bring Added Interest and New Ideas

Plans for close co-ordination of workers for this year's Antioch Country Fair, to be held August 24, 25 and 26, for considerable enlargement of the staff were made at a meeting of committees held Tuesday evening in the Lake County Farm Bureau offices at Grayslake. Each of the eight committees met separately in the early part of the evening, and they then combined in a general meeting.

Because the fair has grown to such proportions, during the 17 years that it has been held, that a small centralized staff is no longer adequate, the general co-operation of all prominent leaders in the community is being sought.

"We feel that by this means new ideas to insure the fair's success may be secured," leaders of the fair have stated, adding that "Some very fine suggestions have already been offered."

With the early start this year, and the co-operation that seems assured, an unusually fine fair is being forecast for this fall by the committees.

Receiver in Bankruptcy

Fantastic as it may appear, the possibility of Fascism in America is sufficiently alive to warrant serious consideration by all thinking citizens. William Yandel Elliot, Chairman of the Department of Government at Harvard University, recently discussed the growth of this form of dictatorship abroad, and finds certain definite ominous parallels in this country.

"Fascism," said Mr. Elliot, "comes in various guises, but always as a receiver in bankruptcy. The bankrupt is most obvious in the economic sphere, but it betrays a more fundamental failure—the breakdown of a nation's faith in its institutions."

The trend in this country toward national bankruptcy is inescapable. Within the past decade we have added more than $20,000,000,000 to the federal debt. Moreover, according to latest reports, the annual cost of government will rise $1,000,000,000 during the next fiscal year.

Most of this staggering debt increase, we are told, is due to the failure of private enterprise "to take up the slack" in the economic machine, and until it does demonstrate an ability and willingness to forge ahead (regardless of debts, confiscatory taxation and political attack) there can be no substantial let-up in government spending. Thus we have rising deficits and a threatened breakdown of faith in American institutions—requisites of Fascism.

"... Sooner or later," concludes Mr. Elliot, "the pinch of public credit will take us into this dangerous region (chronic economic disorder). If the way out that is chosen lies along the familiar lines of Fascism... even relative freedom is done. Fascist discipline tramps upon the very hands that lift it to power."

In the meantime, the politicians continue to beat business to its knees with fanatical legislation, regulation and taxation, while asking it between blows to struggle up and carry a heavier and heavier load.

Don't Insult Independent Merchants

It's about time the old, fallacious argument that "chain stores are driving the independent merchants out of business" was relegated to the obscurity where it belongs. For, as the statistics prove, progressive independent store owners have thrived in the face of chain competition—and it's an insult to their abilities and intelligence to say they can't meet it.

The years from 1929 to 1935 were years of deep depression. Yet, according to U. S. Government figures, the number of independent stores increased by almost 100,000 in that length of time. And, going by the latest complete figures available, independent stores do close to 75 per cent of all our retail trade.

Local studies have been made in 453 typical American communities—ranging in size from hamlet to metropolis—to find out just how independent stores are faring. Result—there are as many independent stores, and in some cases more, in proportion to population than there were before chains existed.

This doesn't mean independent stores don't fail. Thousands of them do each year—and so do many chain systems. And the reason for failure, believe it or not, is rarely competition. According to the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, 37.2 per cent of retail failures are due to insufficient capital; 31.4 per cent to incompetence; 15.6 per cent to such exigencies as flood and other natural disasters; 4.9 per cent to inexperience—and only 3.9 per cent to competition! It doesn't take an economist to realize that the underfinanced, inexperienced and inefficient store isn't long for this world—irrespective of whether chains operate in its locality or not.

Smart independents give the chains many a headache, by putting into effect novel selling ideas, personalizing service and thinking up new attractions for the consumer. The independent store operator is far from being the stupid oaf, bewildered and frightened by competition, the politicians would have you believe.

Play Safe—and Live!

Firecrackers are popping merrily throughout the country—a good week in advance of the Fourth of July. But the trail of death and suffering they are leaving in their wake is not so merry.

Despite laws, campaigns and warnings, fireworks still are being put into the hands of children, as well as adults. It is urged that use of fireworks be confined to community displays, handled by experienced operators.

The only safe way to handle fireworks is to stay away from them.

The two great contributors to the annual Fourth of July toll are traffic accidents and drownings. Last July 8,720 people were killed and 800,000 injured in accidents in the United States. This huge total was fed by the Independence Day celebration.

This year, traffic will be unusually heavy because of two World's Fairs. Extra caution will be needed to keep from piling up a new high for tragedy.

HOSS TRADIN'

MY FRIEND asked me if I would go with him to buy a horse. I went. We traipsed from one dealer's to another. One man asked us $300 for a horse. The next man had a horse which looked no better, but his price was $450. Before the afternoon was over we had seen horses ranging in price all the way from $150 to $14,000.

Now, the $14,000 horse was a much better animal than the $150 horse. No use to deny that. But nowhere along the line did we find a stabilized market.

Had we bought we would have been paying a price which the seller thought his horse was worth. There was no market authority we could consult which would tell my friend whether he was being overcharged or undercharged.

That same evening I went out to buy a small household item—one which is advertised in all the newspapers. I knew what the market price would be: advertising had told me.

With confidence I asked the clerk for what I wanted and put my 25 cents down on the counter. Had he said: "I am sorry, sir, but the price is 50 cents," I would have left and gone somewhere else.

What assurance have I, as a consumer, that someone won't take advantage of me and overcharge me in this bold way?

My only assurance is the advertising which I read in the newspaper. That is my market and my buyer's guide. It tells me the prices I must expect to pay. Let the seller who tries to charge me more beware.

It also tells me what quality I may expect. Let the seller who tries to give me a poorer substitute beware.

So you see that advertising stabilizes prices and enables me, no matter how inexperienced I am in business, to buy with the same expertness and assurance of a professional buyer who spends his life buying for a large concern.

No one objects to paying the established price for something he wants. But all of us hate to be robbed by an unscrupulous man who, taking advantage of our ignorance, "soaks us good and plenty."

The way to avoid being "soaked" in this complete way is to buy advertised goods from merchants who advertise.

There was a time in America when there were no set prices. Each merchant charged what he thought "the traffic would bear." Advertising came to the rescue of the consumer. It led the way to the established prices you pay when you buy anything today—except, perhaps, horses.

England's Wall Street. The City of London, ruled over by the Lord Mayor, is England's Wall Street and newspaper row. Over this small district rules the Lord Mayor, whose show each fall is one of the greatest sights of London. He must be a man of wealth, for his salary does not begin to cover the expenses of his office. There is a lot of satisfaction in his job just the same, for he it is who must give the king of England permission to enter this small domain.

Making Sunday Day of Rest Sunday first became legally a day of rest under the Roman emperor Constantine, the Jewish Sabbath having been observed on Saturday.

SOLOMON: A RULER WHO BEGAN WELL

LESSON TEXT—1 Kings 3:5-15.
GOLDEN TEXT—Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart, that I may discern between good and bad.—1 Kings 3:9.

Success or failure in life is determined by the measure of a man's devotion to God and obedience to the will of God. We speak now of real success, not according to the ideas of the world. We are concerned with what a man is and what he does for God, not with what he may happen to possess.

An excellent outline taken from Points for Emphasis, by Dr. Hight C. Moore, most effectively presents the lesson.

I. Wisdom Offered (v. 5).

Solomon had properly opened his reign by going to Gibeon to offer a thousand burnt offerings because he "loved the Lord" (v. 3). Having returned from his day of worship, he had fallen into a deep sleep when God spoke to him saying, "Ask what I shall give thee." It was an unusual offer, a kind of blank check that God gives only to those whom He can trust to fill it out right, as Mac-laren suggests.

Sometimes we wish God would give us such an opportunity. "That is just what He has done. He has appeared to you not in dreams, but in broad daylight and by His Son Jesus Christ has said as plainly as He could, Ask and it shall be given you." He has repeated: "It three times, saying, ask, seek, find. And then He has returned to say, 'Everyone that asketh receiveth, and he that seeketh findeth, and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.' We have no right 'to say that Solomon was more favored than we. We are more favored than he. If we have not, it is because we ask not. If we lose peace and joy, happiness and heaven, it is all for want of asking" (Joseph Hammond).

II. Wisdom Chosen (vv. 6-9).

The noble and intelligent choice of Solomon has been much admired and rightly so, for he chose the greatest gift that could come to any man, "an understanding heart." He might have asked for money or power, but with the lack of wisdom to use them properly they would have been a curse to him and to others. Long life is but a continued blight to a foolish man because it only extends the time of his folly. All things in the way of possessions must be outside of a man, therefore they may be lost or misused. But what he is and what he has in his heart, these are what make a man worth while. Solomon showed the beginning of wisdom when he chose, above all things, an understanding heart.

III. Wisdom Granted (vv. 10-14).

There can be no higher word of commendation than to say that a man's choice "pleased the Lord" (v. 10). To have that attitude of mind and heart which expresses itself in words and actions so exactly in conformity to the will of God that the Almighty Himself is pleased, is to be ready for God's unlimited blessing. Solomon asked for wisdom, and because he received that gift from God, he was ready to receive riches, honor, and power. We may by God's grace go the same way and take from His blessed hand numberless gifts.

Note the qualifying word "if" in verse 14. Solomon failed God in his later years as king. The tragic results are written for all to read. That way none of us should ever go. The lesson is plain—faith takes blessing from God; unbelief brings failure and sorrow. Let everyone that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

IV. Wisdom Exercised (v. 15).

When Solomon awoke from his dream he showed his faith in God's promise, and in fact demonstrated the wisdom which was now his possession, by returning to his capital city, Jerusalem, to stand before the ark of the covenant in reverent worship, then to lead his people in a public service of confession and consecration, which was followed by a great religious feast which drew the king and "all his servants," the people of Israel, into a blessed unity before the Lord.

One could wish and pray that all the rulers of the earth whether in democracies or under dictatorships might have the wisdom and humility of Solomon. The world is in utter confusion and really confesses that it does not know the way out of its difficulty. It has not yet turned to God. If rulers and people would fall upon their faces before Him in contrition and supplication, it would not be long before we would see both spiritual and material peace and prosperity.

Make It Positive

Scripture seems to make it positive that every soul has everlastingness, but Scripture also seems to make it positive that for Jesus' kind of everlastingness every soul has got to qualify.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Christian Science" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 25.

The Golden Text was, "Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains; for the Lord hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted." (Isaiah 40:1-3).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "If ye love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you and shall be in you" (John 14:15-17).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Christian Science is natural; but not physical. . . . The Principle of divine metaphysics is God; the practice of divine metaphysics is the utilization of the power of Truth over error; its rules demonstrate its Science." (p. 111).

46 YEARS AGO

(In the Antioch News Files for June 29, 1893)

The hotels are beginning to receive their full consignment of Chicago visitors.

The Wolf Brothers, of Chicago, lately placed a beautiful gasoline launch on Channel lake. Mr. Oleson, who has a cottage at Lake Marie, also placed a steamer on the lakes the past week.

S. M. Spafford sold an Evanston party a five-year-old sorrel horse for $250 last week.

As next Sunday is the Sunday preceding Independence Day, there will be an appropriate service at the Methodist church in the morning. Subject, "The Hand of God in American History."

30 YEARS AGO

July 1, 1899

The advertising auto trip through the county last Monday proved a success, although a part of the trip was eliminated as it was believed the entire course could not be covered, before nightfall. The nine autos arrived here about 11:30 and headed for Round Lake, where a stop was made for dinner. There were no unusual incidents to mark the trip except at Grayslake, where a junk dealer with a wagon load of iron was met. His horse became frightened and the wagon was tipped over. The spot was a marshy one and the iron quickly sank out of sight, causing quite a loss to the dealer.

The grand opening of the Columbia club was held last Saturday and Sunday. A large crowd from Chicago as well as many from this vicinity were in attendance.

Thomas Corlett, the well known Libertyville contractor, has the contract for building two large modern barns on the Granger Farwell home just north of Lake Forest. The new buildings are expected to be models of sanitary equipment and arrangement.

15 YEARS AGO

July 3, 1924

The water at the lakes west of Antioch has risen to the highest levels ever before recorded, according to many of the "old timers" who have lived in the neighborhood many years. The Blue Lantern is entirely surrounded by 18 inches of water, and several days last week the fishing at the back porch of the pavilion was reported as being good.

The Channel Lake Country club Sunday opened its course to a fair crowd.

Specimens of supposed army worms brought to C. L. Kutil, agriculture instructor at the high school, were pronounced by him to be "thistle worms." The army worms have not as yet invaded this section, it is believed.

A Marmon car belonging to A. L. Whitmer of Chicago was destroyed by fire shortly after noon on Tuesday, near Lake Villa.

Many special luxury taxes put in force during the World War are being repealed this month.

BIRTHS

A son, Jerry Conrad, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Nixon at West Suburban hospital, Oak Park, June 18. The baby's weight was announced as eight pounds. Lester formerly lived in Antioch and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nixon.

Mr. and Mrs. George I. Lynch of Chicago are the parents of an 8½-lb. boy, Thomas Irwin, born Saturday, June 24.

Obituary

A solemn high mass was held at St. Peter's church Friday morning at 10 o'clock for Mrs. Bertha Jyrch, 74, who died last Tuesday at her home here. Burial was at All Saints' cemetery, Des Plaines. Survivors include a son, Karl E. Jyrch, Jr., Chicago; four daughters, Mrs. Charles Erickson, Peoria, Ill.; Mrs. James Erickson, Lake Villa; Mrs. James Erickson, Mrs. Richard Pogose, Chicago, and Miss Grace T. Jyrch, Antioch, nine grandchildren and a great granddaughter.

BABY CHICK LOSS CAN BE CUT DOWN

Obtain Reliable Birds From The Tested Flocks.

By Dr. Frank Thorp Jr., Associate Pathologist, Colorado State College, WNU Service.

The usual baby chick losses can be greatly reduced this spring and summer by farmers and poultrymen if they will buy their chicks from U. S. pullorum-tested hatcheries and flocks or from hatcheries known to maintain very rigid inspection over their breeding flocks.

Records show that pullorum disease is second only to fowl paralysis as a cause of poultry losses. Several lots of chicks have been tested at the college laboratories this year. Diseased birds have come from out-of-state hatcheries but none from hatcheries operated under the U. S. Poultry Improvement plan.

Flocks managed under this plan have been pullorum tested and all reactors removed. Those showing 10 per cent or more reactors cannot be used as breeding flocks until a retest shows that the disease has been cleared up.

A constant temperature and strict sanitation measures are essential in keeping losses to a minimum where a slight infection may exist.

Grafting or Budding Is Easy for Horticulturist

There are usually only two methods in grafting or budding fruit trees, says a writer in the Montreal Herald. Grafting is done in spring before or just as growth is starting. In grafting over fair sized or large trees this may take from three to five years doing a third to a fifth of the tree each year. The process is to saw off the limb at the desired point. The stub is then split through the center and a narrow wedge driven into the center of the stub to keep the split open until the scions are inserted. Meanwhile twigs of last year's growth which have been taken from the desired variety some time ahead and kept in a cold place to keep them dormant are cut into three bud lengths and the lower end trimmed in the form of a long wedge to match the split in the stub. In trimming these make the outside a little thicker than the inside so that the pressure will be greater along the outside where the union takes place. In inserting the scions one on each side push the bottom slightly inward and the top slightly outward and thus insure contact of the cambium or growing tissue. When in place, take out the wedge, bind around with damp raffia and use grafting wax to seal up the top of the stub and about the scion.

'Weeping Tile'

"Weeping tile" is the name often given to ordinary farm drain tile. These tiles are unglazed, clay tile, one foot long, such as are used by farmers for the construction of underdrains in wet land. It may be of interest to know that the term "weeping tile" originates from the idea that, in order to be effective, water has to percolate through the walls of these tiles. The fact is, however, that no such percolation takes place, the water in the soil entering the drain through the joints between the lengths of tile. In fact, the best quality drain tile are those with the least porous walls; tile with an ability to absorb a large amount of water when allowed to soak are usually rejected because of insufficient burning in the kiln.

Agricultural Notes

Next year, 1940, the next agricultural census will be taken.

Corn acreage in the United States decreased 3,000,000 in 1938 and cotton acreage approximately 8,000,000 acres.

Turkey feeding tests in Michigan showed an average of about a pound per week gain between 20 and 24 weeks of age.

For 17 times in 21 years Canada won the world's wheat prize at the International Grain and Hay show in Chicago.

Fourteen out of fifteen poultry hatcheries in Louisiana are co-operating in the program for control of poultry diseases.

Young ducks forced for rapid growth and marketed at from 9 to 13 weeks of age are called green ducks. They weigh from 4 1/2 to 6 pounds each.

Italian poultry vendors never deal in other meats. They sell the rooster combs separately.

Over a period of years, alfalfa has been the most profitable of the hay crops in New York state.

Good cows will average about 15 per cent more milk on three milkings a day than they will on two.

Since lambs and sheep are easily dressed, it is possible to have this good fresh meat often on the farm.

Fountain Pens Long in Use

About 300 years ago two adventurous Dutchmen journeyed to Paris. A diary of their experiences reads as follows: "We met a man," they relate in one entry, "who makes goose quills of silver, into which he pours ink. And from the split end of the pen, one can cover pages and pages without being obliged to dip in an inkwell. This veritable magician of writing takes care to guard his secret—how he gets the ink into the hollow pen and how the ink arrives at the nib with just the right flow. He will soon make a fortune. We ourselves ordered a dozen, at twelve gold louis (about $10) each."

Food Value of Tomatoes

Tomatoes contain 3.3 per cent carbohydrate, 0.9 protein and 0.4 per cent fat. They also contain calcium, phosphorus, iron, copper and manganese, and vitamins A, B, C and G. One small tomato contains 25 calories.

Many Statues of Buddha

Throughout the world, statues of Buddha far outnumber those of Christ. In China and Japan particularly, millions of them, says Collier's Weekly, varying greatly in size and shape, fill temples, courtyards, caverns and public and private gardens. It is not unusual to find 10,000 small Buddhas carved in the walls of a remote and abandoned cave.

Allspice Berry of Pimento

Allspice is the berry of the pimento (Pimenta officinalis) or allspice tree, of the West Indies, also, the mildly pungent and aromatic spice prepared from it. Allspice has been supposed to combine the flavor of cinnamon, nutmegs, and cloves, hence the name.

Deepest Gold Mine

The deepest gold mine is the Robbinston Deep Mine of the Rand Gold field in South Africa. It has a depth of 8,300 feet.

Egg Liver Oil

Hens used to give us eggs, and cod used to yield us liver oil; but that's all changed. Dr. H. B. Thomas, professor of animal research chemistry at the state university of Iowa, feeds his hens on irradiated yeast, which makes them lay eggs so full of vitamin D that each egg contains as much of that vital vitamin as do three teaspoonfuls of cod liver oil. Doctors used to say one drop of cod liver oil contained all the nourishment of three pounds of beef steak. It looks, then, says Tit-Bits Magazine, as though Doctor Thomas has succeeded in condensing a whole ox in an eggshell.

Notes for Farmers

Protection from dampness and from drafts are the two requirements that most poultry houses fail to meet.

Tobacco growing, one of the principal farm industries of Onondaga county, N. Y., produced a heavy yield in 1938.

Buckwheat production in the United States dropped from an annual 1927-30 average of 9,569,000 bushels to 6,082,000 bushels in 1938.

Some bee keepers let their bees die in winter, claiming it is cheaper to import new stock each spring than feed their swarm during the cold months.

Watermelons are to be grown in Egypt from seed imported from the United States.

Of the 865 million persons gainfully employed in the world, 550 million are in agriculture.

Tenant's Firewood Limited
In medieval times, a tenant's firewood was limited to the amount of underbrush he could cut with a hook and the deadwood he could knock from the trees with a shepherd's crook. Hence the expression, "by hook or crook."

Featured at the grand opening of the ever popular Channel Lake ball room this Saturday will be Alfred and Aline Marfield and their orchestra, introducing a new orchestral vogue. This team of entertainers has been featured with Kay Kyser, Phil Harris, Hal Kemp and other headline bands, and only recently closed an eight weeks engagement at the Bon Air country club after having appeared for three months at the famous Blackhawk restaurant in Chicago. . . . L. W. Cohan, new manager of the ball room, announces that there will be dancing nightly Wednesday through Sunday, with matinees on Sundays and holidays.

In the nature of a treat to the community are the open air talking movies being shown Thursday evenings at Nielsen's Barbecue, junction of Grass Lake road and Highway 59. . . . The barbecued spare ribs introduced this year by Mrs. Nielsen to supplement their famous beef and pork barbecues are creating quite a sensation among their patrons, and visitors who have tried them once are going to come back for more. . . . Sportsman's trophies that are a feature of the decorations include a huge moose head presented to Mr. Nielsen by a friend who shot the animal in Canada about five years ago.

Thirty-one, including the guests of honor, the Sister Superior and her assistant, were present at a luncheon held by the ladies of St. Elizabeth's hospital, Chicago, in the dining room the Roundup, on Highway 54, south of Kenosha. Reservations have also been requested of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Mueller, the proprietors, for a gathering to be held there July 22 by a Hungarian club from Chicago. After their dinner, the club members plan to go on to Meissner's resort for swimming.

Plans for the event have not yet been completed. . . . but watch for news of an anniversary celebration to be held by the Old Orchard Inn, Highway 54, soon.

An impromptu water carnival, with stunts and everything was staged by visitors at Rothers' Resort, Grass Lake, on Sunday. . . . After July 4 Mrs. Lillian Rothers is planning to add Friday fish fries to the weekly featured dancing in the pavilion and fishing are diversions enjoyed by visitors.

The Colossal Caves

The Colossal caves are about 27 miles southeast of Tucson, Ariz. Rivaling in beauty and size the Carlsbad caves of New Mexico, this natural wonder has for many years remained almost unknown to travelers. But in recent years the caves and surrounding area have been improved under the supervision of the national park service. The ceiling is ornamented with intricate silver webbing. There are stalactites of translucent calcite. Many of these are so hard that if struck with the hand they ring like chimes. In some places the stalactites and stalagmites have joined and the result is columns of unusual shapes.

Porter is an occupation name of Latin origin meaning "keeper of the gate." There are two Latin sources for this name, the noun porta (a gate, portal or any entrance) and the verb portare (carry) from which we get the word porter, one who carries luggage, etc. However, says Florence A. Cowles in the Cleveland Plain Dealer, "keeper of the gate" is the accredited meaning.

Chester Gan, of the Chinese Village at the Golden Gate International Exposition, is amazed at the ease with which Tanya Widrin does her ironing in the Westinghouse Exhibit. Since it requires about 2,000 movements to iron a shirt, Chester pulls about 16,000 pounds per shirt. Tanya does the job without effort, in five minutes, while seated comfortably.

ALL NATIONS TEAM TAKE 10-2 VERDICT OVER ANTIOCH ACES

Doc King's Men Go on a Hitting Spree in Final Innings

After holding Doc King's dusky All-Nations about even for six frames the Antioch Aces blew their chance to win the latter three innings in a game here Sunday afternoon and landed on the short end of a lop-sided score, 10 to 2. Cunningham, southpaw, held the locals scoreless during the last four sessions while his teammates chased 7 markers across the plate.

Next Sunday afternoon the strong St. Patrick's team of Wadsworth will be guests of the Aces. The visitors have one victory over the Aces, and the locals will make an effort to even the count.
